SEN Learning Assistant required

(This is a temporary position in the first instance – which may become permanent)

Salary: Scale 3 (£20,007 - £20,472 per annum) pro rata

Post Hours: 32.5 per week, 8:30am – 3:30pm Monday - Friday (term time only) (30 minutes unpaid lunch break daily)

Eastbury Primary School is a four form entry school set in beautiful, modern buildings, serving a catchment of wonderful children who have a real enthusiasm for learning.

The Co-Head Teachers and Governing Body would like to appoint a Learning Assistant to work in our 'Sunshine Room' where you will support pupils with a range of special educational needs. You will be joining an already strong team of professionals to support our children's learning in a multi ethnic, multi-language school.

The successful candidate will be required to support teachers and pupils at times in small groups or with individual pupils. They will work closely with the class teacher to facilitate and undertake direction for teaching and interventions. They will support parents, pupils, teachers and the school to establish a supportive and nurturing learning environment in which children make good academic progress.

For this role you should:

- have a helpful, positive, calm and caring nature
- be able to support pupils to learn and develop
- be able to demonstrate a willingness to be flexible and adaptable as part of a busy and committed support team across the whole school
- have experience of working with pupils with a range of special educational needs including children with social, emotional and mental health needs.

The job description and application pack are available on the school website vacancy page, which can be found at: <http://www.eps.barking-dagenham.sch.uk/vacancies.html>
